What is recital rehearsal?

Recital Rehearsal is a very important part of the recital experience. It will be held at the Jennie T. Anderson Theatre. This is the first time the dancers and actors will see what the theater looks like, perform on stage, and get a true feel for what the show is going to feel like. You are required to arrive 15 minutes prior to 10am. We will not be able to wait for late arrivals. This is an important day so please take the time/effort to ensure an on-time arrival. Please allow enough time for traffic.

What does my dancer wear to dress rehearsal?

Dancers need to come dressed in regular class attire with all appropriate shoes. Dancers need to wear their regular class tights to the dress rehearsal and save their recital tights for the show. No makeup is required for dress rehearsal.

Am I allowed to watch dress rehearsal?

No, parents are not allowed to watch dress rehearsal or be in the theatre during dress rehearsal. You can either wait in your car or in the venue lobby area.

Stage Make-up and Hair:

Should my dancer wear makeup onstage?

YES! The stage is very bright, and the theatre is big! All performers will need to wear make-up for the show, so they do not get washed out by the stage lights. For our younger performers we recommend: mascara, blush and lipstick. Our older dancers should wear full stage make-up: eye shadow, eyeliner, mascara, blush, lipstick, and false eyelashes. We want all our performers to look their best on the big day! Glitter is fun too for that extra added touch! Male dancers do not have to wear makeup.

How should my dancer wear their hair on recital day?

Your child's hair should be in a bun at the crown of their head. Your child's hair should be as neat and clean as possible. Please make sure it is secured by using hair gel, bobby pins and hairspray. NO fly-aways! We would like for everyone to have a nice, uniformed look. This is a special day, and we would like you to make a special effort to look your best. If you have a hairpiece, bow, etc. please make sure that it is secure so that it does not fall off on stage.

The Big Day!!:

When should my dancer arrive at the theatre on Sunday, May 28th?

This is the big day your performer has worked for all year! You will need to arrive at the Jennie T Anderson Theatre 1 hour and 15 minutes prior to the performance (1:45pm). As you arrive at the theatre, you will bring your child to the left of the building to the performer's entrance. Please note that men are not allowed in the dressing room areas. When you drop off your child, you will need to check them in with a Showbiz Staff Member by initialing your name on our check-in sheet. After you check-in your dancer, please proceed back out the performer's entrance and head out to the main lobby entrance to enter the theatre and find a seat in the auditorium.

Please note: there is no entering or exiting the theatre via the front of the stage. You must go outside and around the building – Thank you.

How should my dancer come dressed when they arrive at the theatre on Sunday, May 28th?

We will have snacks and water while kids are in dressing rooms. You are not allowed in dressing rooms during the performance.

My dancer is in more than one class. Which costume should he/she wear first?
